VOL. IV. NO. 98.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

KENTUCKY DERBY HORSES.

Rain and mud have been very much in the way of satisfactory training operations at Louisville, but the fact that Kentucky Derby day is near at hand has forced trainers to send their charges along anyhow and most of the candidates there for the early stakes are already well advanced in work. Of some of the derby candidates the Courier-Journal says:

"During the past week the talent has been enabled to get a line on the candidates of the Kentucky Derby. Lieber Karl's win in the Memphis Derby and Plaudit's fast work at Churchill Downs have made the talent think that the fight will be between these two colts. Bannockburn is reported to have gone wrong, and, despite the well known shrewdness of Col. McGuigan in training horses, there is some foundation for the report, as a reliable owner at Churchill Downs, who has been to Memphis, is the authority for the statement that Bannockburn has not been on the track for a week, and it is hardly probable that McGuigan, with all of his ability, can prepare his colt for the derby by working him out in his stall.

"The probable starters in the derby now quartered at the Downs, with the exception of Plaudit have not quite shown up to expectations in their work during the past week, but their trainers still have hopes of the colts doing better, as they are all a trifle high in flesh, and their work has been performed under adverse conditions.

"There is one colt at the track that has been entirely overlooked by the talent, and he may prove to be a dangerous factor in the Derby. He is Crit Davis' candidate, Han d'Or. He has worked a mile at the Downs in 1:46 doing his workout easily. He was sent a mile and an eighth Friday in 2:02, but the boy who was riding him had the colt's head in his lap over all of the mile, and if Han d'Or had been turned loose he would have shown the rail birds some fast time. The colt seems to have a bad disposition, but he has a nice way of going and looks like a race horse."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Springfield, by St. Albans—Vision, by Marsyas, who recently died in England, was the best sprinter of his day. The general opinion was that he could have gone a distance as well if he had ever been asked to do so. He was foaled in 1873 at Hampton Court Stud and was, therefore, twenty-five years old when he was destroyed at Green Lodge, Newmarket, March 30. He was bred on the good old cross of Stockwell on Touchstone. As a yearling he was purchased by Mr. J. H. Houldsworth for $100. He won the first race in which he started, defeating Fore-runner, who ran second to Kisber in the Derby of 1876. Mr. Baltazzi's future Derby winner, then known as the Mineral colt, beat Springfield in the Dewhurst Plate, it is true, but the latter showed so much improvement in his three-year-old form that it is more than likely that he would have turned the tables had he been entered in the Derby of 1876.

Springfield was a beautiful horse, with great size and reach and full of quality. His tremendous burst of speed can be best judged by the fact that he lowered the colors of such brilliant sprinters as Lollypop, Lowlander and Ecossais. That he could stay he showed by giving Silvio twelve pounds and an easy beating in the Champion Stakes at a mile and a quarter in 1877. In the following year he went to the stud at Hampton Court. He sired a Derby winner in Sanfoin, but his best son was Ruperra. However, he will best be remembered as the sire of Margarette, the dam of Galtee More. He is the sire of the promising two-year-old Prestidigitatrice, winner of the Arlington and Mount Vernon Stakes at the Bennings meeting.—Spirit of The Times.

Commenting on a recent San Francisco sensation the Breeder and Sportsman correctly says: "The defalcation of City Treasurer Widber is laid at the door of racing, but it is a settled fact that dollars went into mining where cents were invested in tickets on gallopers. When a person goes wrong it makes one think of the old gag: 'Who did it?' and the answer, 'Why, Tom Collins.' Whether the defaulting city official had any interest in race horses or not, it is known that those he is alleged to have owned won a lot of money lately, so that he couldn't be out much on the deal."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Capt. Ben Harris has invented a racing bridle with a spring blind attachment, to be used on bad actors at the starting gate. When lined up the bad actor is placed in position at the gate, the starter pulls the lever to the barrier, the jockey pulls a string to the bridle, which makes the blinds fly backward, and the horse darts away. It worked to a charm on Pescador and twenty or more others that are anything but angelic at the post, and the chances are Capt. Harris has invented a contrivance of great value to owners of bad-tempered horses.—Breeder and Sportsman.

A San Francisco exchange says in its issue of last Thursday: "Lonnie Clayton, considered one of the best horse pilots in America, signed a contract last Tuesday to ride for E. Corrigan the coming season. The Corrigan string will leave about May 5th, and the big turfman's gallopers are well engaged at Latonia, Oakley and on the Canadian circuit."

There is talk of recruiting a regiment from among the vast number of touts at the track. They will furnish their own gun, smokeless powder and lamps. If nerve is necessary in the make-up of a soldier, they will all return with medals.—San Francisco Call.

The old roan veteran, Tim Murphy, was so badly cut down in a race at Ingleside last Wednesday that his racing career is supposed to be ended. He has had a wonderful career as a race horse and is certainly entitled to well earned retirement.

The Louisville Jockey Club has refused to consent to the proposed ten days extension of the Newport meeting, consequently racing over the Queen City track will come to a close May 3.

The Kentucky Association track at Lexington is to be offered for sale soon, the St. Louis capitalists who now own it being tired of a race track over which it appears impossible to conduct racing without losing money.

The promising light weight jockey Spencer has left San Francisco for New York where, it is reported, he will ride for the brothers Thompson under Jimmy Rowe's management.

Jockey H. Martin has so far recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia that he is now on his way to Chicago, where he will begin his work as jockey for Tom Ryan.

Capt. Jas. H. Rees is in San Francisco, sight seeing and having a good time generally, but not to take his old place as presiding judge at the tracks.

This week at Ingleside and two more at Oakland will wind up the California racing season of 1897-98.

Jockey N. Turner leads the riding talent at Newport with twelve wins out of thirty-one mounts.

Winner—B. f. by Morello—Glen Ellen.

Start good. Won in a hard drive of three horses. Modwena was the best and a most promising filly. She was lucky. Anne Page favors a hard track and was none too well ridden. She should be tabbed. Crossmolina ran a dull race. She is a dull filly. Winifred moves slowly in the early stages of her races and finishes strong. She is fit, will do best at a distance and should be tabbed. Juanita ran to the mark. Was not well ridden. St. Kristine was hardly bridledwise. Is a good colt. Watch him.

Overweights—Crossmolina, 4 pounds; Practice, 4.

Star had a lot of speed. Watch him. Nubia is ready and closed strong. Tab Cromwell. He was off badly. Ludwig does not fancy a route. Stentor was tangled up at the start with the last division, which had no chance.

Scratched—Buckwa, 105.

Winner—Ch. g. 6, by Ecuador—Eva S II.

Start good. Won handily; drive for place. Tortoni was best today. He is an acrobat. Texarkana ran a good race and jumped well. He promises well at the game. Was not well ridden. Palmer ran nearly his race but was used too much. Gold Dust is not of much account. Col. Bartlett and Eureka jumped as if they needed much more schooling.

She was impeded a trifle on stretch turn. She is ready. Mistleton was also hampered as the field spread for the final run in the straight.

The Major was cut off on the first and stretch turns through poor riding management. He is fit, and can win at once.
